DRILL TEAM 1980-81

The 1980-81 Drill Team is a group of girls who have worked together throughout the year to accomplish many things. One of their greatest accomplishments is learning to work together as one group. They have had ups and downs but that has led them to what their hard-working Drill Team is now. The most important accomplishment is that they've learned to have confidence and pride in their performances—whether good or bad.

ONE MOMENT VICTORY

The Lancers had a very disappointing season, losing all but one game. Lennox's one moment of victory came when they downed the Hawthorne Cougars 20-16, the first game ever played by the two teams.

Although Lennox only won one of their games, they kept their pride by fighting with all they had. Although Lennox only won one game, we should still pay tribute to those who did outstanding on the team. The Most Valuable Player was Kevin Lawrence, and the Most Scored Points went to Anthony Hampton. Letchen Parker, Kevin Lawrence and Graig Gutman were players who made All-League Team. The football team would also like to thank everyone who went to support the team with spirit.

SOPH-FROSH comes in 2nd place

This year was a whole different story from last year. When this young Soph-Frosh team was unable to capture a single victory. The young Lancers came out this year, against a tough Culver City team and tied them 7-7. From there on their competition got a little tougher, and in their pre-season games they fell short. But when the league came the young Soph-Frosh team was almost unstoppable averaging over 20 points a game while allowing their opponents less than 10 points.

The Lancers worse defeat came against Miraleste. The Lancers needed this win to go into 1st place and come in 1st place in the League. In this gruelling game the Lancers played a great defense, but needed help with their offense, losing the game 23-21.

With only Reina Pinto returning from last year, Coach Wheelers 1980 volleyball team set about developing their skills, understanding of the game, and ability to perform together as a team. The girls showed great hustle and togetherness in heartbreaking losses to taller, more experienced squads from Hawthorne and Morning-side. Reina Pinto was team captain and named most valuable player. Reina plans to be a physical education teacher in the future.

Injury upset season

Lennox Cross Country team started out on the right foot, but ended on the wrong shoulder. An outstanding athlete and top runner on the squad, Sergio Yepez, in the middle of the season, broke his shoulder. This disaster hurt the team as well as Sergio, because the injury kept him out the rest of the season.

The team kept running strong, though, despite this injury placing fourth place in league. At the Fall Sports Banquet awards Sergio Yepez was awarded Most Valuable Player on the team. Jose Garcia won the Coaches Award, while Carlos Culqui won most Improved.

JV Cross Country

The Cross Country Team of 1980 had only two members returning from last year, Mario Espinosa and Jorge Heredia. But this did not slow the J.V.'s will to excell and come out in front. At league finals the team placed in third place and had two runners come in the top ten; Sergio Hernandez (2nd place) and Rudy Herrera (third place).

Head Coach of the Cross Country Team, Dennis James, had the tough job of keeping the team in top condition and spirit. Thanks to this, many of the team's members improved 100%. The team was also very lucky to have Roaldo Moran, a freshman, who is the team's hope for next year. Sergio Hernandez and Rudy Herrera also did outstanding throughout the season helping upset Culver City and El Segundo. Another member of the team was Abel Pomar who was fifth man, an important place that can sometimes decide the outcome of a race.

Girls Tennis faces tough com

The 1980 girls' tennis team was a fun team to coach. The girls blended well together and by the end of the season, we had developed a feeling of togetherness. We had a losing record (4-6) but our spirit never died. We were in several matches until the last round of sets. Matches against Lawndale, Leuzinger and Aviation were decided by the results of the last set.

League finals saw Jennifer Roles finish 3rd place and Luz Rivera and Tonya Kendrick finish 5th place. We ended our season with an evening out at Farrell's and a fun filled day at Disneyland.

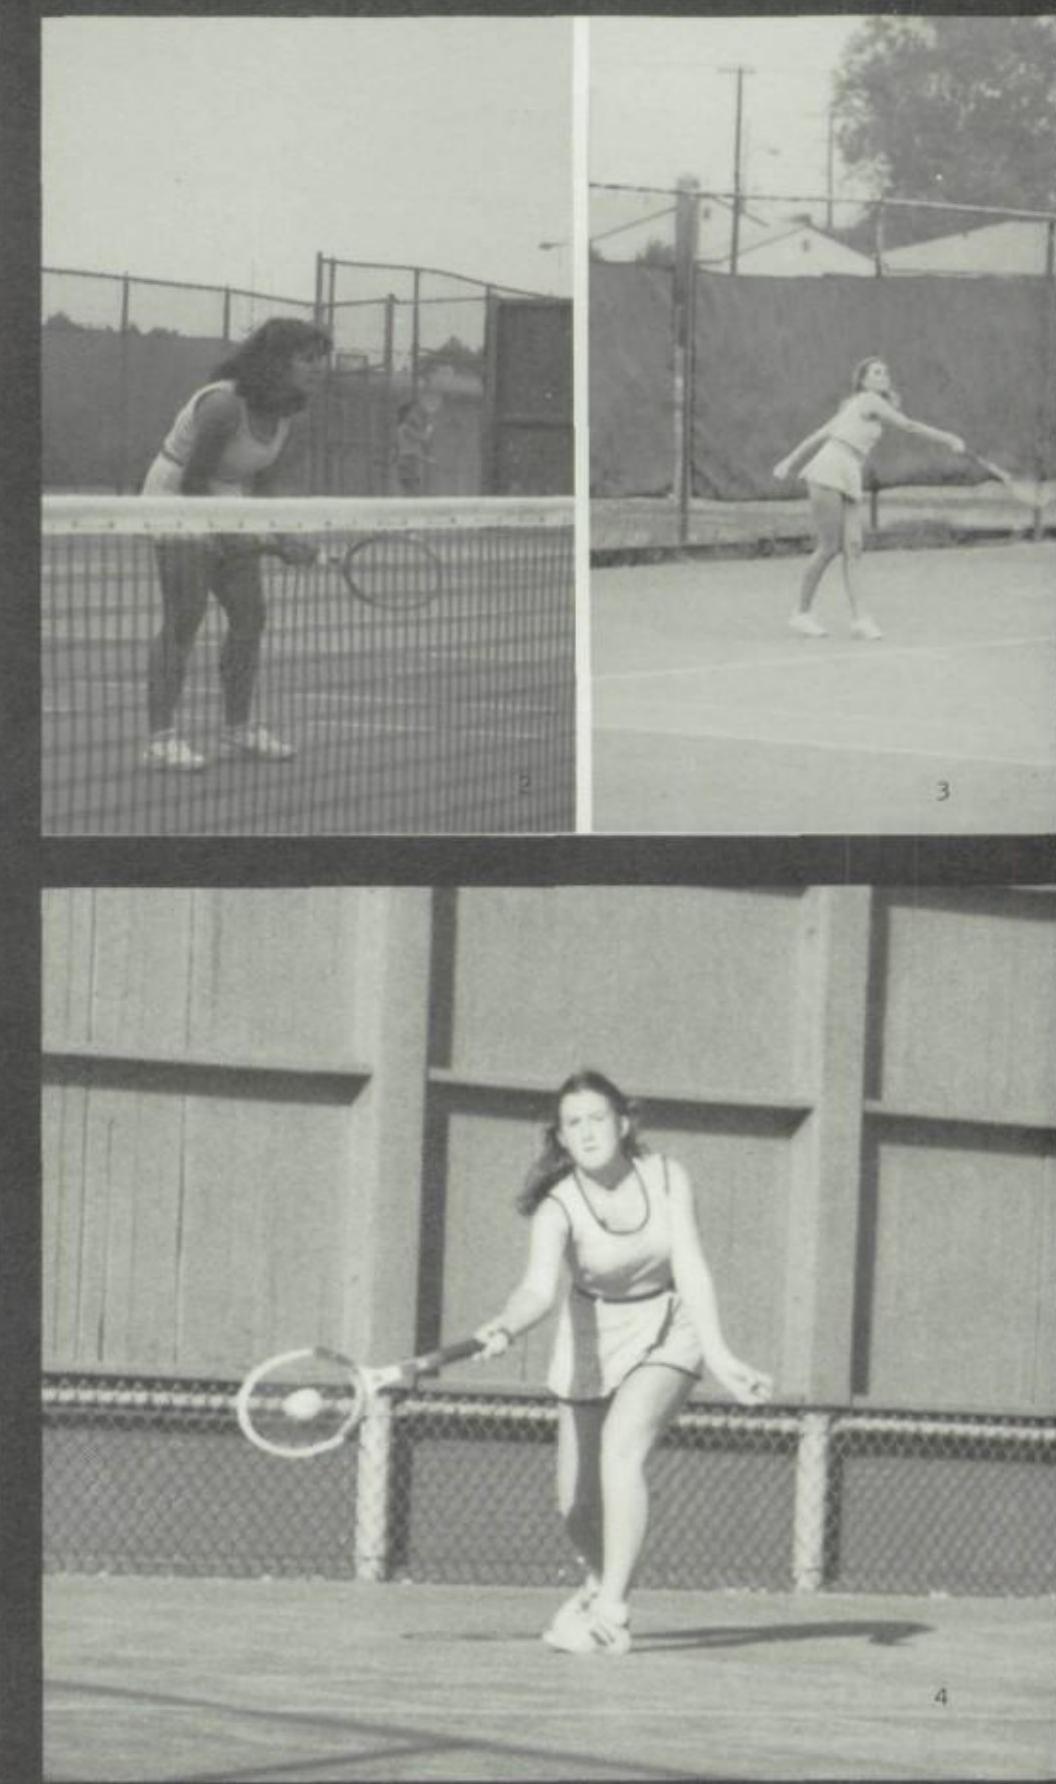

Jennifer Roles was voted the Most Valuable Player and received all league honors. Rowena Manlagnit was the Most Improved Player, while Luz Rivera and Tonya Kendrick received Most Ideal Award. Team members are Seniors: Jennifer Roles, Luz Rivera, Barbara Nikkel, Minerva Moreno, Marilyn Whitley and Diana Buchanan; Juniors: Tonya Kendrick, Julie Campos, Danette Le Beouf and Rowena Manlagnit.

EXCITING SEASON

This year's Varsity basketball team finished very impressively with mostly juniors. The way the season went for the team can only be expressed in one word: "shocking!" It was truly to be one of the best seasons ever for a Lennox basketball team but, because of a few complications, the Lancers fell short.

Outstanding basketball ability was displayed throughout the year by senior guard, Kevin Rachall, forward Otis Bowen, and juniors such as Wesley Russell, Patrick Gray, and Alfonso Cameron.

DONKEY BASKETBALL

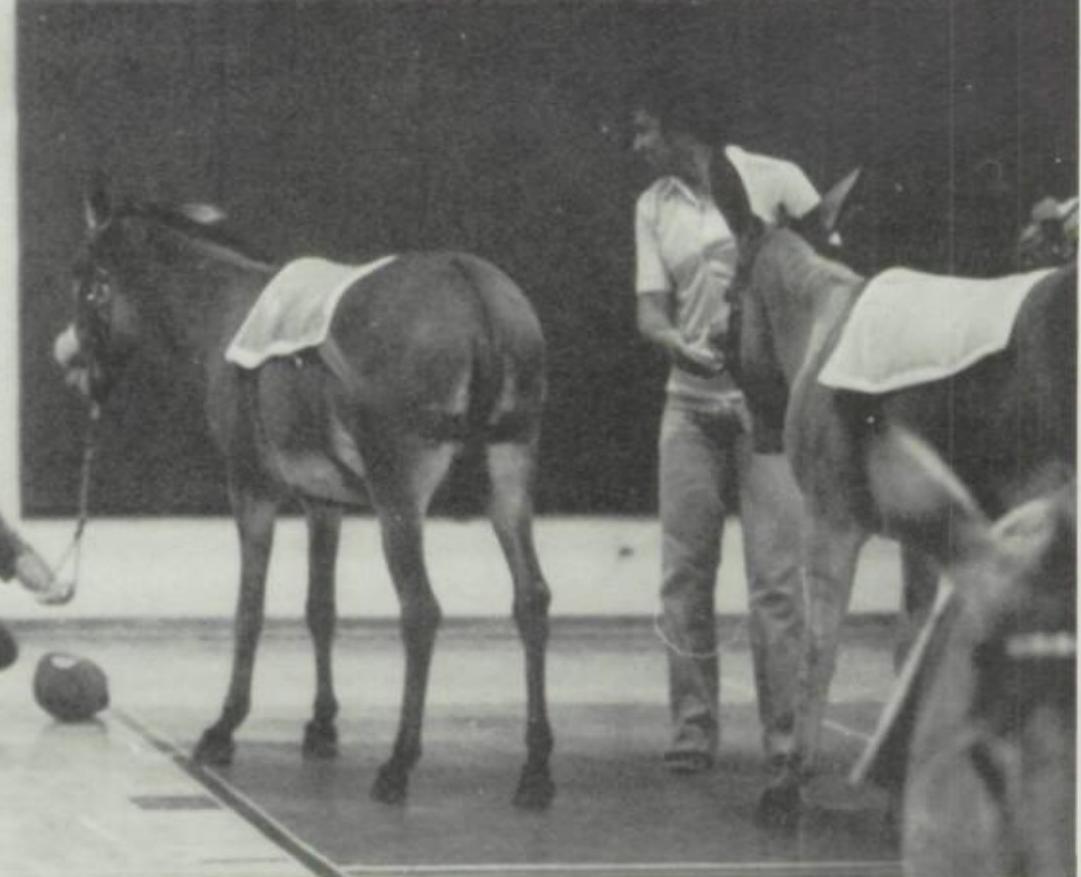

The 1981 Donkey basketball game was a hilarious success. Once again it was the teachers fighting it out against the students for victory. In this years game it was hard to tell if the donkeys were riding the students or the students riding the donkeys. The score this year was 36-28 in a teacher over student win. The donkeys finally got their sweet revenge against their riders as they were throwing them off left and right and loving every minute. HA HA HA HA HA

Among the Varsity players are, Goalie Raul Alonso, Ignacio Lopez, who made our defensive line one of the best in the league, Samuel Coronado who made our halfback line much more solid, and David Velazquez and Yepez Scroio who make the opposite defense very nervous.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON FOR VARSITY TENNIS

Although the Varsity Tennis Squad was weakened by the graduation of most of their players, several of the returning members were outstanding throughout the season. Senior Carlos Culqui led the team as the Number One player who helped the Lancers stay on top of the opposing schools. Another singles player who did overall was Alphonso Cameron, a junior. On the Doubles Squad, Ruben Magdaleno and Jonathan Erhardt did an outstanding job defeating schools who were supposedly "superior" to Lennox. Overall the Varsity Tennis Team had a successful season even though some matches were lost. Head Coach Marian Kovinick hopes that more people could come out and play tennis and help the Squad be undefeated.

1. Ruben Magadaleno, number one doubles player, carefully tips ball over net, scoring another point for Lennox. 2. Carlos Culqui demonstrates his strong backhand that led him to be most valuable player. 3. Alphonso Cameron returns a fast serve, winning his match.

JV's give it all they got

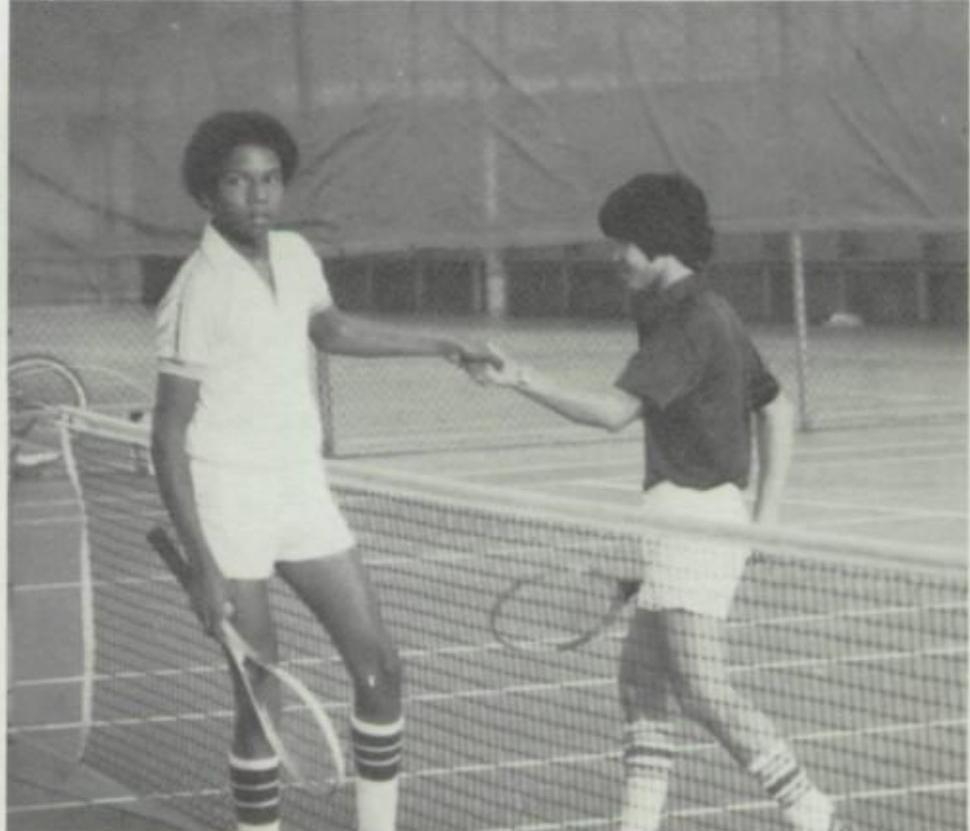

Though most of the JV's tennis squad is made up of Freshmen . . . Sophomore Romeo Plascencia and Junior Dennis McGregor try to keep the JV's looking good. Much help came from freshmen Victor Gonzales who won most of his tennis matches. Though the JV's did not end up as they would have liked they did have a good season thanks to Chris Roles a magnificent coach and a former Lancer Tennis player.

This young and unexperienced team has a lot of raw talent, this is being developed by coach Alice, "this team won't quit because winners don't quit." They were young but, there were players that stood out, these were Ann King, Connie Constance, and Kelly Kocis.

Fighting Lancers have high hopes

The 1981 Varsity baseball team can best be summarized as a young team with great potential. In practice games, the Lancers gathered wins against Charminade, Cathedral, St. Monica, and Norbonne to enter league competition with a 4-2 record. The roster included two sophomores and five juniors, pitchers Fernando Fernandez, Timmy Nelson and Craig Gutman are showing fine ability, and are destined for a good future at LHS. Other players displaying talent were Anthony Hampton, Tom Nelson, Florentino Sierra, Leonard Trujillio, Mirk Merencio. Each player on the roster contributes to the team's success as a whole by incorporating hard work and self-discipline.

First Semester President, Patty King

Second Semester President, Joey Collins

Second Semester Vice-President, Dannette Le Boeuf

Class Advisor, Mrs. Brierly

Second Semester Secretary, Cindy Alexis

Patty King, the juniors' first semester president, believes that Lennox High's spirit is "better and greater than any previous year" and this is because Lancers think this is Lennox's last year.

After Lennox she plans to go to college and major in Broadcasting and Communications. She likes swimming, skating and volleyball but prefers listening to AC/DC and Journey.

Joey Collins, second semester president, enjoys being at Lennox High School. Joey's favorite class is biology, because it teaches about living organs and their functions. After graduation, Joey plans on becoming a pro hockey player. Joey likes to kick back at home with chocolate chip cookies and a tall, cold glass of milk.

The American Field Service is a club designed to learn about other countries, cultures, and ways of life.

This year Lennox had the honor of Eunice Essien's presence as a foreign exchange student from Liberia. Linda Hokenson was chosen last year, to represent Lennox High as a foreign exchange student, to the country Turkey, over the summer.

Mario Espinosa was chosen this year, to attend a foreign country next summer. We wish them all many happy memories.

We're graduating!!!

② The King of Persia sent his general, Mardonius, to subdue the Ionians. When he was near the city of Miletus, he sent his messengers to the temple of Hera to sacrifice a bull. The priest said, "I will not let you have the bull; it is sacred to Hera." Mardonius said, "If you do not let me have the bull, I will burn down your temple." The priest then said, "If you do that, I will burn down your city."

During the first half of the twentieth century, the study of the history of the Americas was dominated by the United States. The United States had been the first country to achieve independence from European rule, and it had become a major power through its industrialization and expansion. The United States also had a long history of colonialism, particularly in Latin America, which provided a rich source of material for historians. In addition, the United States had a large and diverse population, which made it easier to study the history of the Americas. The United States also had a strong tradition of historical writing, with many prominent historians such as Charles A. Beard, James Truslow Adams, and Carl L. Becker.

I remember the first day of school, in our freshman year. Everyone and everything looked so big we were known as "Punky Freshman" and even though we thought we had graduated into a much higher and sophisticated world, we found ourselves at the bottom of a four place totem pole. We looked up at the sophomores even though they were just one year older than us. And we envied the Juniors—they had cars and seemed to dress in style. We idolized the seniors, and were in awe everytime one walked into the room. I remember how close we all were then—we needed each others support to make it through each day. I remember how on graduation night we collected the gowns, and felt so honored at being kissed on the cheek by some of the graduating senior guys. Our sophomore year was a lot different. We were still close, yet we started to drift our separate ways. Our junior year showed some improvement. Our class began to come out of the woodwork and unite as one, like we once were. We all stuck together as we went through the emotions of almost being seniors. We made big plans of how the class of 81 was going to go in style. Graduation that year was a little bit more emotional. Even though it wasn't our graduation many of our boyfriends, girlfriends, brothers and sisters graduated and it threw us into the shock of reality that we were next. On the first day of our senior year, most of us still felt like juniors, yet we knew we had finally reached the top. Now that we are here, now that we are envied by the freshman we realize that our year is only as great as we make it. We were close again like we were when we started as freshman at this small, but wonderful school. We vowed to stick together this year and drift apart no further than we already had. This year has brought upon many happy and sad times. We finally realized in the 3rd quarter of our last football game against Miraleste that it was the last time we would all be together cheering for the Lennox Lancers. We kept ourselves from crying by reminding ourselves that we still had basketball season. The last basketball game wasn't as emotional as we had expected. We creamed El Segundo and had a great half-time performance by our pep squad. Graduation is right around the corner yet we all pretend we don't notice how quickly time is passing. Most of us are glad to be graduating, yet there are a few like myself who wish they could hold on to this year suspended in time forever. But we all know that we must go on and that the memories we have from these past four years will hold many more memories. Graduation night is here—I walk down the aisle past the flower girls. I see my mother—she snaps a picture of me. As I arrive at my seat, everyone has on great big smiles. I see my fellow classmates filing in. I have a feeling of sadness, yet a feeling of great fulfillment and happiness, as they hand out the diplomas. I feel the end coming near. It is time to turn our tassels . . . It seems we've come so far, yet we've only just begun . . .

NOTICE! THIS, & THE NEXT 2
PRECEDING PAGES SHALL BE HENCE-FORTH KNOWN AS THE
"BLILEY PAGES."

— Lori, well, what can I say? This is the final book! We've come a long way since Felton (6 yrs) & to date, you've been the best & most trusted (& most confided in) friend I have ever had. It's just too bad we sort of branched off & went our separate ways in our sophomore year. We were a good team. "Lori & Laura" we were known as. It always seemed that (to me @ least) I was sort of like your big sister & counselor in that when you needed advice, or just someone to talk to, you came to me. I appreciated that. Remember camping? How 'bout the parties & dances w/ your "ma" as ("James") the chauffer? Well, let's get back to the present.
It's summer (Father's Day to be exact!) 1981.
We both graduated & I'm attending N.U. & starting September you'll be attending San José
State. As I said before, we've come a long way.
I'm always here if you need me, & I hope you find that one guy who'll do you right & make you as happy as Jeff's made me. You're a one & only -- let's K.I.T.
Laura . . .

OK. Lop, lop, lop. Actually, I thought that I would be able to just sit down and write, but I can't. Let me think..... O.K.

DEAR LORI,

THE WARRIOR

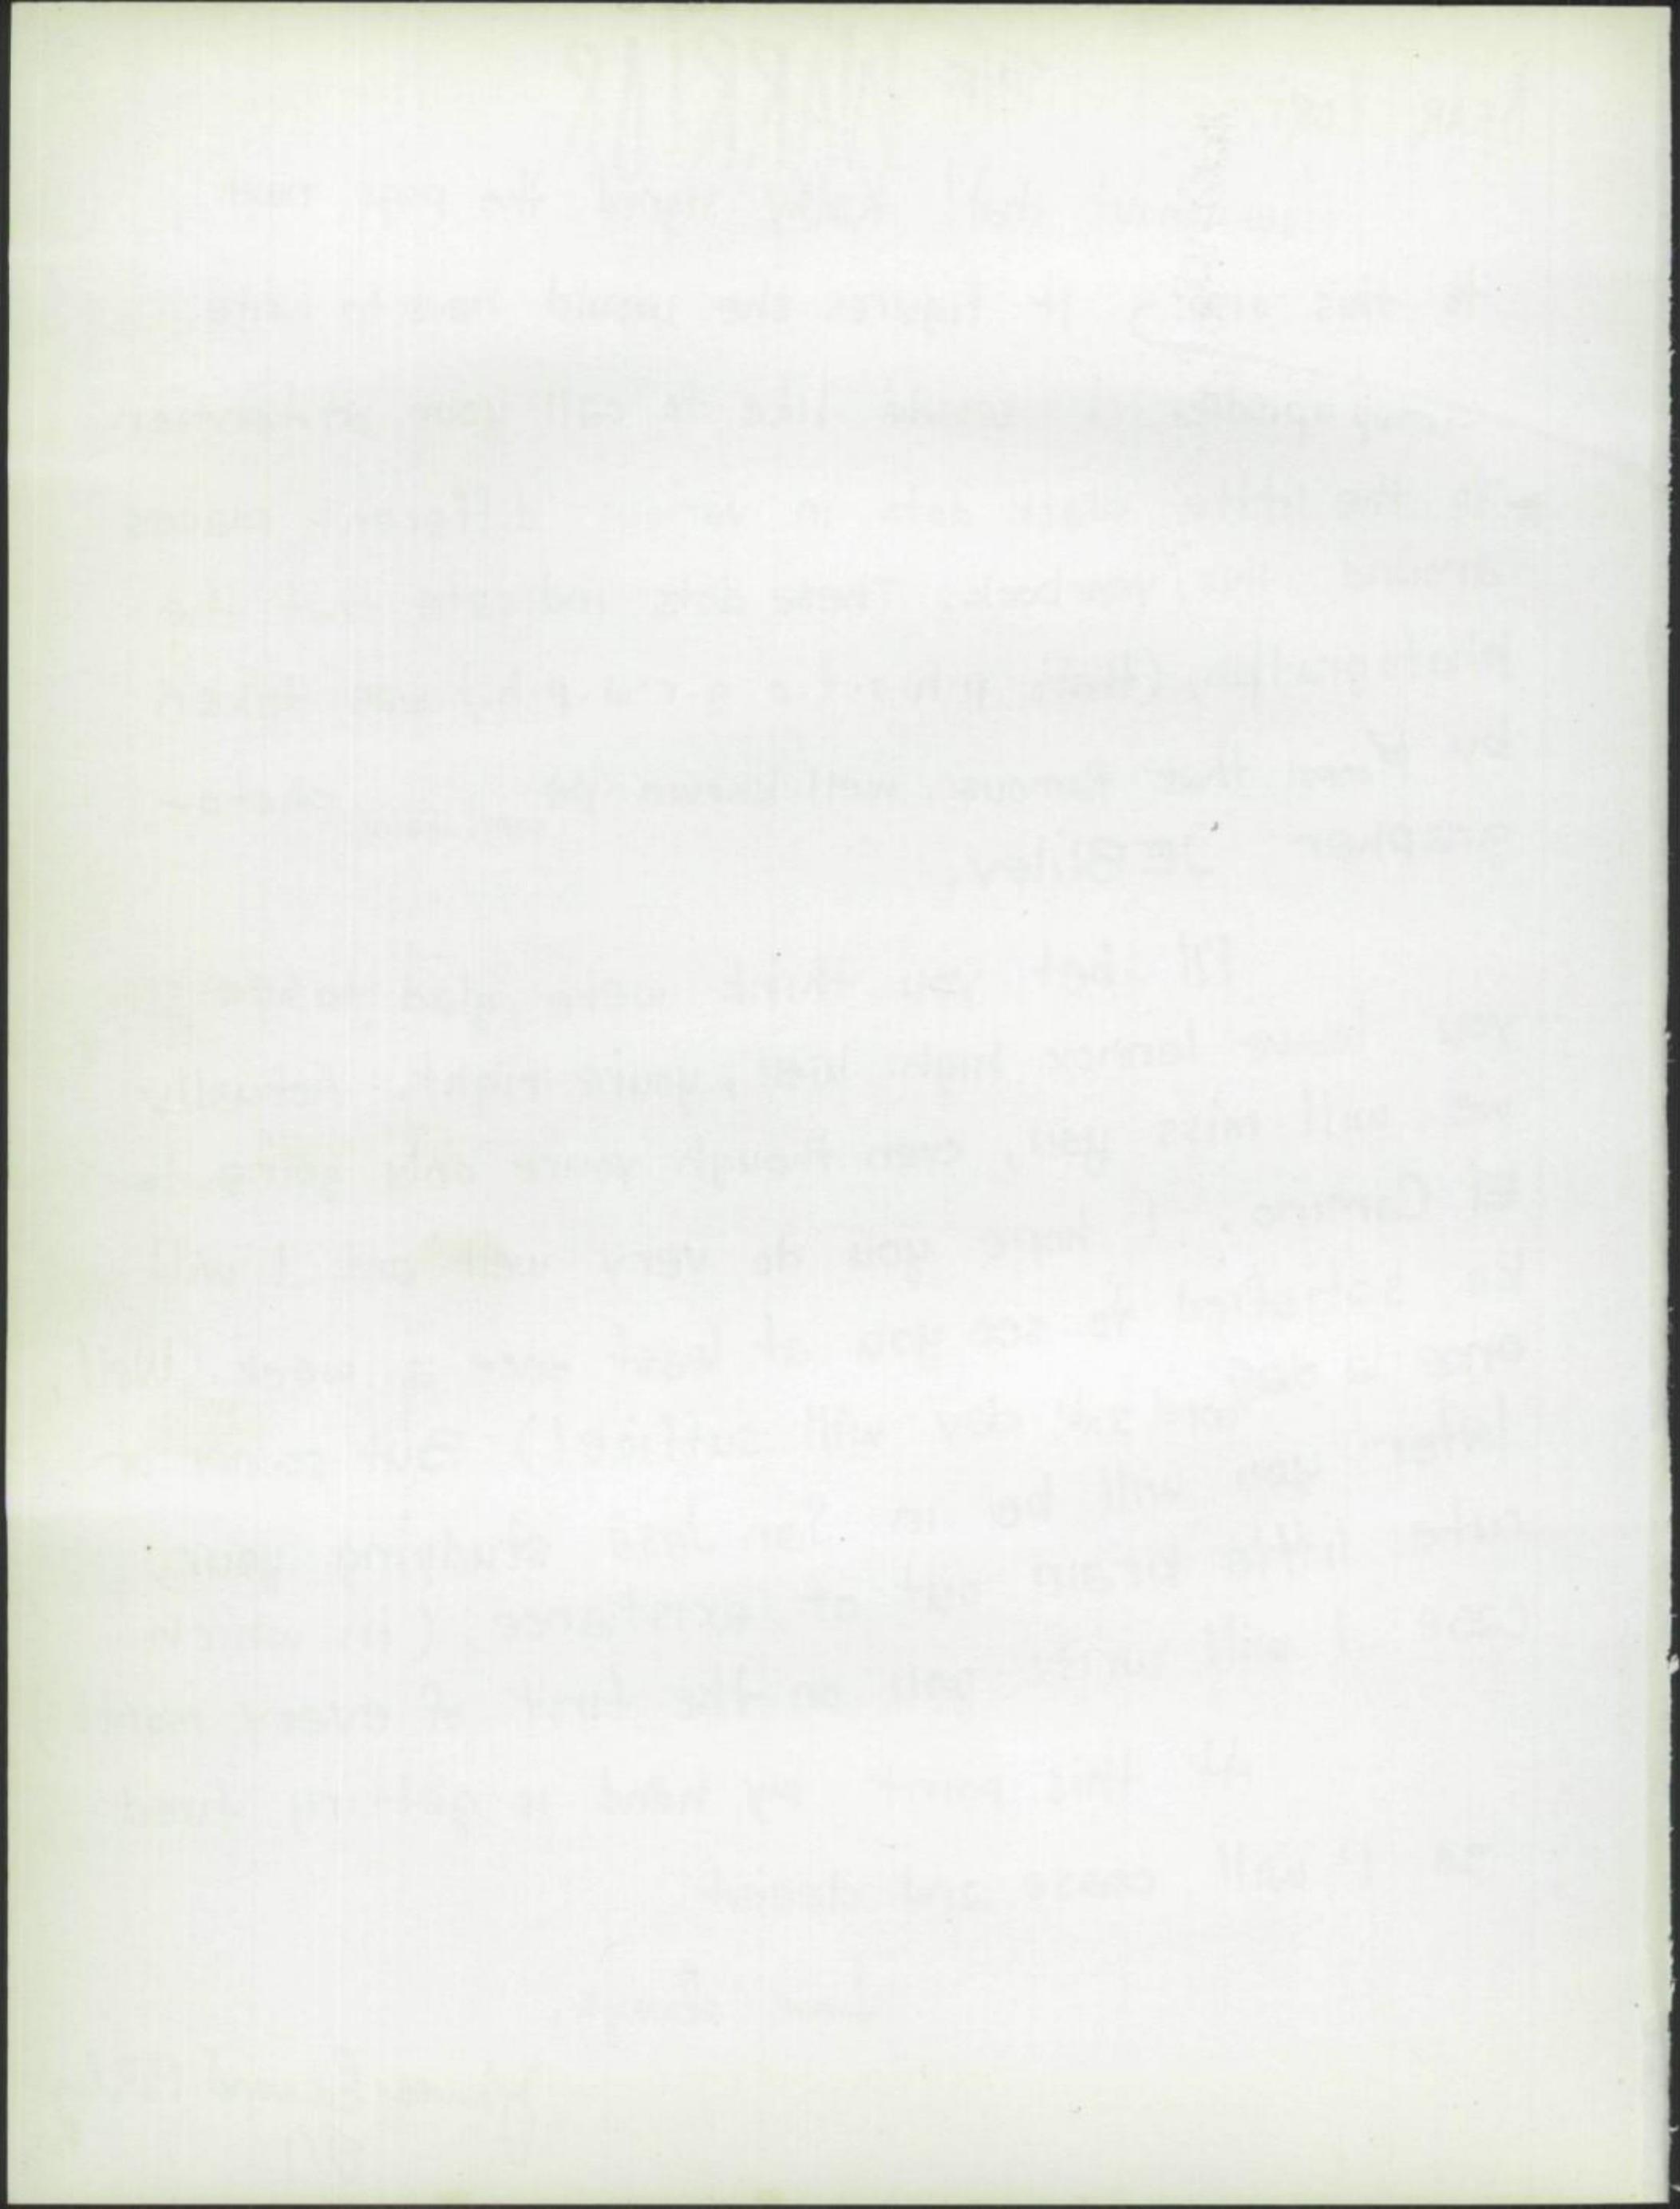

How about that! Kathy signed the page next to this one! It figures she would have to write ~~unop episdn.~~. I would like to call your attention to the little black dots in various different places around this yearbook. These dots indicate that the photograph, (that's p.h.o.t.o.g.r.a.p.h.) was taken by Koops! that famous, well known ~~phot~~^{oops! again!} photo-grapher JEBiley.

I'll bet you think we're glad to see you leave Lennox High. Well, you're right. Actually we will miss you, even though you're only going to El Camino. I hope you do very well and I will be satisfied to see you at least once a week. (Well, once a ~~day~~^{oops! 3x's!} day will suffice!) But sooner or later you will be in San José studying your case I will write you on the first of every month.)

At this point my hand is getting tired so I will cease and desist.

Love always,

To Lori, hope that you have enjoyed high school as much as I have. It has been fun.... You are one of the sweetest (sugar, sugar!!!) and loving people that I have ever met. I sure hope that we keep in touch after June 18. Good luck kiddo in all of your future endeavours and good luck especially at San Jose, but even though you will meet new friends always save a spot in your heart,  for me, all your friends, and good ole LHS.
God bless and don't always ever lose your faith. All I can say is have a good summer and "It's been fun....")

Love always
your bien amigo,
y siempre amigos
